The story of ΨΑΨΑΤΙ is perhaps one of the most intriguing and fascinating episodes of Mahabharata (Mahābhārata), one of the two major epics of ancient India. Yayati was a great scholar with devotion to the welfare of his kingdom. Married to seductively beautiful DEVYANI, but also in love with DEVYANI'S maid SHARMISTHA. His infidelity to DEVYANI brings upon a curse of the old age by DEVYANI'S father Maharishi and revered yogi SHUKRACHARYA ... a curse on His Majesty that he will lose his youth for ever and become decrepit by nightfall.
